Student self-assessment sheet

Name:	Class:
Before you answer the questions, read through them at first answer! This is important, because then I can offer you bett		•	give	an h	ones	t
I. Listening Comprehension
You have to say what you think about yourself. When you to are very good at that, when you tick the are you say that yo
		0	 	3	9	(2)
I can understand longer texts, even if I don't know all the w	ords.
I can answer simple Yes / No questions on this text.
I can take notes while hearing the text.
I can remember details.
I don't have to hear the text for a second time to know what was about.	at it
And here is some space for your own comments:
II. Grammar
This is now about a topic not many of you like, I know, but I real problems are. Just tick the boxes!	have t	o kn	ow w	vhere	you	ır
I have difficulties with / often make mistakes:	Yes		No
Irregular verbs (Go - went - goneverbs like these)
If - Clauses (Remember: If and would J!)
The passive voice
The plurals

Some / any

Much / many

I have difficulties with / often make mistakes:	Yes	No
	103	110
the use of the tenses:
- simple past vs. past progressive (I walked home - I was walking)
- present perfect (I have walked)
- simple past vs. present perfect
- past perfect (I had walked home)
- will – and going to future
- timetable future (The train leaves at 8 a.m.)
Negative questions (You are good at English grammar, aren't you?)
Adjectives and adverbs (good and well, and things like these!)
The grading of adjectives (good - better - best/ bad - worse - worst)
Repeatedly uses of Germanese "It gives the possibility"
Word order

III. Talking

Sometimes it is necessary that you give a talk in class or answer questions I also want to know about your problems in here ... If you have got any! Just tick the boxes!

	Yes	No
I can give a talk in class
I can't give a talk in class – I am too shy. They could laugh at me!
When I speak I sometimes don't know the words.
I don't dare to speak in class at all. What if it's wrong?
I can always say what I mean.		